While it is desirable to look fashionable, it is important that what you wear is appropriate and safe in the school environment. Clothing and footwear should be worn at all times. Listed are some of the things you cannot wear in school:

*No short shorts, or mini dress or skirts (with arms and fingers hanging straight down on your side, bottom wears cannot be shorter than your finger tips).

*No skin should be exposed between top and bottom layers.

*No exposed underpants.

*No strapless, halters, or spaghetti straps.

*No inappropriate low cuts opening around your collar.

*No see-through clothing.

*No clothing with suggestively inappropriate, obscene, or offensive pictures or words.

*No footwear with wheels (Heelys), flip flops, slippers, or open back shoes.

*No hats or hoods.

*No coats or jackets worn as outerwear.

In addition to the above rules, when using the gym, proper footwear should be worn at all times and no jewelry.

I have read and understood the MCS Student Dress Codes and will abide to them:
